ALARM CLOCK'S FAILURE COST HAGERMAN $40,000

Carlsbad, N. M., Dec. 1.—Although J. J. Hagerman, railroad builder, died several months ago in Italy, the story has just come to light here that an alarm clock cost him $40,000.

Hagerman led the battle against frost by "smudging" in his orchard, assigning each employe a section of the orchard to smudge. Each employe set an alarm clock to arouse him early and every man got there except one. His clock did not work.

Hagerman did not miss him and his section of the orchard was not smudged. All the apples were saved except this one patch and the failure of the clock to work cost him $40,000.

FOR THE AMBITIOUS WOMAN.

A great man said, "Be not the first to try a new thing nor the last to forsake an old."

But note,—in this life the time always comes to throw over the old for the new. Time itself is change. You must change with time or fall behind the procession.

Don't let prejudice keep you from the benefits your neighbors enjoy,—from modern improvements in all lines.

Baking Powders have improved along with everything else. But you'll never know it till you try K C Baking Powder. Guaranteed the Best at Any Price,—the acme of perfection, the splendid result of modern scientific research.

If you don't agree that K C Baking Powder makes your baking lighter, sweeter, more delicious than any other, your grocer refunds your money. The manufacturers guarantee that your baking will always be perfectly raised, sweet and palatable, pure and wholesome.

And K C costs you less,—no "Trust" prices, but a fair price for a perfect Baking Powder. You'll marvel at the saving and ask how it can be done. Answer,—"Not in the 'Trust'."

"You say that local option has been of great benefit to this section of the country?"

"Yes sir," answered Colonel Stillwell. "As soon as a lot of us citizens realized how far anybody would have to go for a drink we organized a good roads movement."—Washington Star.

Stung For 15 Years

by indigestion's pangs—trying many doctors and $200.00 worth of medicine in vain. B. F. Ayres, of Ingleside, N. C., at last used Dr. King's New Life Pills, and writes they wholly cured him. They cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, stomach, liver, kidney and bowel troubles. 25c at all druggists.

Mr. S.—See that young farmer, Maggie? He made a fortune cultivating weeds.

Mrs. S.—Surely not. What kind of weeds were they?

M. Pruger, the former manager of the fashionable and gay Savoy hotel in London, has come, at a salary of $50,000, to conduct a restaurant in New York.

Discussing success with a reporter, M. Pruger said:

"Success, leaving aside thorough practical ability, which we may take for granted—success depends on tact, on sympathy.

"I'll illustrate this with an episode: 'A Manchester man took his wife to the Palace music hall. The Palace girls came on and did their notable 'danse aux lambes dans l'air,' or 'danse of the uplifted limbs,' as one might say in English.

"The Manchester woman, regarding this dance, sniffed.

"Well, that beats me!' she said.

"Without either sympathy or tact her husband chuckled:

"You bet it does!"—Exchange.

"Great Caesar! old man," exclaimed the gunner, as he opened the door and found his friend's house brilliantly illuminated at noonday. "What does this mean? Why are all these blankets over the windows and why is the gas burning in the daytime?"

"Sh!" whispered Guyer, cautiously.

"It's a scheme of mine."

"What kind of a scheme?"

"Why, my wife is in the country and I tell her I remain home every night and read. I've got to get rid of some of the gas somehow so it will go on the bill at the end of the month."—Exchange.

"Man was made to mourn," quoted the moralizer.

"Yes," rejoined the demoralizer, "and woman was made to see that he does it."—Chicago News.

"I'm looking for the man of the house."

"Call again; my wife is out.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While, of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge."
